Allergen Information

STARBUCKS®

●This information is kept updated. Check the date of the last update.
●Manufacturing plants and stores handle various kinds of ingredients, including some allergen-containing ones, which are used in different products. So, there is a risk that an allergen-containing ingredient could come into contact with or get mixed into the product by accident at the plant or the store.
●Each person has a different sensitivity to allergens. We recommend that you consult with a medical expert before you make a decision on the purchase or consumption of an allergen-containing product.
●Under the Japanese Food Labeling Act, the term, "fish and shellfish", can be used only when it's impossible to identify the types of fish and/or shellfish that could be contained in the ingredients of hydrolized protein, fish sauce, fish sauce powder, fish meat paste, fish oil and seafood extract.
●Our information on food allergy includes 7 specified ingredients we're obliged under the Food Labeling Act to include in the label, 21 items equivalent to the specified ingredients which the act recommends to be included in the label, and fish and shellfish. It could take more time to answer your questions about other allergens than the aforementioned 28 items.
